4. Around the Table --

25X1A

[redacted] was briefing General Walters.

✓ Mr. Fisher reported that the last of eleven staff papers needed for the upcoming Director's annual conference has been sent to Mr. Colby.

✓ Mr. Osborn said that the Headquarters compound was penetrated by three active duty U. S. Marines this past Sunday night. The three men made it to the power plant compound. The GSA guard stationed at the power plant challenged the three intruders. The three tried to make it back over the power plant fence. The GSA guard fired one warning shot over the intruders' heads. After the warning shot, the three men halted. The three Marines are now in the Quantico Marine Base brig after being taken into custody by Fairfax County Police. The three have been charged with trespassing on a federal installation. Mr. Osborn reported that the consensus is that the three men were on a "premeditated lark."

Mr. Cunningham noted that the high point of the recent annual meeting of Agency Training Officers was a 30-minute talk by Mr. Colby. Mr. Colby stressed the relationship between career planning and training. General Walters was briefed for two hours this past Friday. OTR is becoming engaged in a one-half day training program for U. S. Customs Officers.

Mr. Blake said that he would be briefing General Walters on OL activities during the afternoon of 9 May 1972.

5. Mr. Coffey said that he would be meeting with Mr. Colby this afternoon on Support Directorate FY 1972 unfunded requirements.
